ROSS NEIL'S NEW PLAYS.

THE CID.—THE KING AND THE ANGEL.—DUKE FOR A DAY; or,
THE TAILOR OF BRUSSELS.

By ROSS NEIL, Author of "Lady Jane Grey," and "Inez; or the Bride of Portugal."

"The three plays which are contained in this volume are marked by the same qualities of vigorous simplicity and artistic finish which distinguished Mr. Ross Neil's earlier efforts. . . . Will be read with pleasure by all who can appreciate tender and elevated poetry, as well as by those who relish the vividness of dramatic recital. We should be glad to make the acquaintance of some of his works on the scene on which they are, if not intended, at least well fitted to be produced."—Saturday Review.

"Of plays written with an obvious view to stage representation, few that have appeared during recent years are superior to 'The Cid' and 'The King and the Angel.'"—Athenaeum.

"If it were possible, as has been frequently proposed, to have one theatre in London for the sole representation of the poetical drama, and if this idea, so fruitful in suggestion, could be carried out satisfactorily by actors who were proud of their calling, and before a sympathetic audience, Mr. Neil's dramas would be received, we think, with the approval they merit. Of the three plays before us, the first appears eminently fitted for the stage, or rather for what the stage was in the days of Mrs. Siddons and John Kemble."—Spectator.

"It is difficult in reading these plays to say which the reader will most admire, the exquisite sweetness of the poetry or the strength of their dramatic character. . . . They could scarcely fail, if put upon the stage, to give as much pleasure to those who witnessed them as they will to every one who may read them."—Scotsman.

TO BONA FIDE INVESTORS.

THE DIRECTORS of a PUBLIC COMPANY, The Head Offices of which are situate in the City of Manchester, with Branches to be opened in two important towns in England, having completed their arrangements, beg respectfully to call the particular attention of the public to their investment.

The concern, previously and for over twenty years, has been the property of one private gentleman, during which time it has been in active operation, and has returned very flattering profits, which profits will be considerably augmented by the introduction of additional capital, the Vendor having come to an arrangement with the present Company for that purpose.

As this is an undertaking of a substantial character, and one which cannot fail to return first-class Dividends on investments, it is requested that adventurous speculators seeking promotion money, and others bagatelling in questionable concerns, will not make applications for particulars; but to all who desire to secure a permanent income, from the humble investor of five pounds to the more fortunate one of five thousand, the Directors will give the fullest information; and they respectfully solicit such persons to write for Prospectuses immediately, to

A WEEKLY REVIEW OF

Will contain:

REVIEWS and NOTICES of all important

REPORTS of TRAVEL, EXPLORING EXPEDITIONS, &c.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE, ANTIQUITIES and

NEWS LETTERS from Foreign Countries.

CORRESPONDENCE between Literary Men.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENTS.

NOTES on the PROGRESS of SCIENTIFIC
DISCOVERY in all branches.

CRITICISMS of the PICTURE GALLERIES, of the STAGE, and of MUSIC.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The ACADEMY may fairly claim the first place among literary journals as the representative of the ripest and soundest English scholarship; and its criticisms of art, literature, music, and the drama are informing, incisive, and trustworthy."

"It is hardly possible in a few words to give an idea of the excellence of this old journal in its new form, but every subject with which it deals (and it deals with many untouched by other papers) is entrusted to the hands of men who know what they are writing about, and the result is a freshness and fulness of information and an accuracy of judgment which commands confidence, and ministers to the intellectual satisfaction and pleasure of the reader. . . . The accomplished and scholarly dramatic critic of the ACADEMY, Mr. Frederick Wedmore, the novelist, whose theatrical notices are perhaps the best in style and the most trustworthy now appearing in any London journal."—Manchester City News.

"Our contemporary the ACADEMY has suddenly sprung into a great literary position, and is full of instructive and interesting matter."—Spectator.

"The ACADEMY, in its new and enlarged form, has a promising look. Its size is that of the Athenaeum, and the general arrangement of its contents does not differ much from that of its venerable and not too enterprising contemporary. The great distinction between the two is that the articles of the ACADEMY are signed. . . . It will be seen that there is no lack of strong names. But strong names will not of themselves float a new paper. The editing, the general tone, the make-up of it are more important, and of these too a good report can be given. . . . Altogether, the ACADEMY is very readable, and bids fair to be a formidable rival to the Athenaeum, which, for that matter, it might speedily and easily surpass in certain respects."—New York Tribune.

THE ACADEMY will pursue the purely practical aim of being a guide and source of information to all educated persons.

IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE.

The REV. SIR EDWARD R. JODRELL, Bart.

To Messrs. FELTOE & SONS,

26 Conduit Street, Regent Street, W.

When at Sall I received an Analytical Report of your "Specialité" Sherry, and you must forgive me for saying that at first I regarded the whole matter as a most egregious piece of humbug. Having, however, tasted the Wine in question, and found it most agreeable to the palate, I determined, on my own responsibility, to have it analysed for myself, having fully also determined previously to expose any hoax pro bono publico, or to give you the benefit of the analysis, should it turn out in your favour. I have the pleasure to forward you Professor Redwood's (of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain) Analysis, which says more than I can express. I am very particular as to the Wine I drink, and as I have been hitherto buying "every-day Sherry" at 60s. a dozen, I am rejoiced to find now that I can purchase Wine of equal strength and superior bouquet at half that price. This should be known to the "General Public," and you can make any use you deem proper of this letter, and also of Professor Redwood's most elaborate analysis.

Yours faithfully,

EDWARD REPPS JODRELL.

21 Portland Place, London: December 9, 1873.

(Signed)

The Rev. Sir E. R. JODRELL.

SIR,—I have completed the Analysis of the sample of Sherry you left with me, and proceed to report the results. Judged by the palate, it might be represented as a light, moderately dry Wine, with nothing to object to in its flavour or apparent strength. It is slightly acid to test-paper, and has a specific gravity of 986.8. These characters correspond with those of a sample of reputed good Montilla Sherry, the specific gravity of which was found to be 986.6, and the acidity almost identical with that of your sample.

I proceeded to make a more minute analysis, the results of which were as follows:—

Absolute alcohol, by volume	20.0 parts in 100
Free or unneutralized acid, partly volatile and partly non-volatile	0.54 "
Volatile acid (acetic acid)	0.1 "
Sugar and extract	2.5 "
Ash, from incineration of extract	0.45 "
MINERAL ACID, or inorganic matter, NOT YIELDED BY GRAPE JUICE	NONE.

THESE RESULTS ARE ALL SATISFACTORY. The proportion of alcohol is that found in the best samples of Sherry, the volatile acid (acetic acid) is not more than is usually present, and the fixed acid is the TRUE ACID OF THE GRAPE, namely tartaric acid. The ash is not more than it should be, and contains nothing foreign to the grape.

In preparing this Analysis, I have been enabled to observe that the alcohol, when separated from the other constituents of the Wine, was PURE IN FLAVOUR AND OF GOOD QUALITY, and that there was NOTHING OBJECTIONABLE in the extract or other products that were separated in the process of analyzation.

(Signed)

I am, yours truly,

T. REDWOOD, Professor of Chemistry to the PHARMACEUTICAL SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

17, Bloomsbury Square, London, W.C., December 5, 1873.

writes, August 6, 1873:—

DIETETIC RECORD.

FELTOE'S

"SPECIALITÉ" SHERRY.

"This wine has now maintained its reputation more than three years. Comparing an analysis which we made recently with the analysis of three years ago, we are glad to see that it is still an honest, sound wine, free from acid, and of excellent quality. It has attained and deserves a great medical reputation."

The
BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL
writes, March 1, 1873, in its Official Report upon the

ANNUAL MUSEUM

BIRMINGHAM:—

"Only one wine was shown this year—FELTOE'S 'SPECIALITÉ' SHERRY—a wine which is deservedly making its way chiefly through the recommendations of the Medical Profession, founded on its honestly excellent qualities, its freedom from acidity and heat, and its uniform soundness."

The PUBLIC ANALYST for PADDINGTON

writes, January 17, 1874:—

"I have had it tested in my laboratory, and am satisfied that it is a genuine, high-class, natural wine, and free from any admixture or acidity. Invalids, and persons who have gouty or uric acid tendencies, and require wine as a beverage in moderate quantity, will find your 'SPECIALITÉ' SHERRY pure and wholesome."
